

HOLY COMMUNION

WHAT IS NEEDED:

Bread, which is the body of Christ, and wine which is the blood of Christ. We can use host bread or any bread. Loaves of bread are good. We can use wine or grape juice or what is comparable. We encourage you to practice communion on the streets of your country offering communion to the desolate and poor.

THE SERVICE

The Lord's Supper is a remembrance and a celebration of Jesus's death by which He atoned for our sins. He gave us salvation and repentance for everything we did that caused pain, guilt, shame, resentment, sin, and fear. It's a way to remember our unity in Christ freeing us from dark. When we take communion we cleanse our Soul of all unrighteousness and remember Christ placing Heaven upon us. God is with us fro teaching about Himself. This communion begins our journey of living deeper in Him.

ON THE NIGHT OF THE LAST SUPPER

1 Corinthians 11:23-26: The Lord Jesus took bread. And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat:

this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ye in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the New Testament in my blood: this do as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye show the Lord's death till he come.

HOLY COMMUNION:

This bread is the body of Jesus Christ our Savior broken on the cross. This juice is poured and is the blood of Jesus that was shed on the cross setting us free from our broken ways and blessing us with salvation. We've begin the journey with God teaching us to live as Christ did for others over self. It's likely we all have struggled from time to time not being able to forgive someone or having kindness, mercy, or gentleness for others when living peacefully in brotherhood is our mission.

Let us forgive ourselves and those who have trespassed against us; and become vessels of light, now and forever in the light of Christ. During this communion, we remind ourselves we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit which is the power of Heaven to live through life, no matter what we face we can make it and no matter what we have done we can atone and begin again. We have the Spirit of Christ in us, giving us perseverance, resolution, and faith to go forward with Heaven's Love.

Let us take this time to reset ourselves to living Christ minded.

Let us share this bread and the fruit of the vine as we continue in remembrance of our Lord; affirming we are the mercy, kindness, Love, and compassion of His light to all we meet. May we become the people of God which He has in His mind and fulfills the calling and purpose of our Souls as Love. Bless us Father with light.

We take the bread.

May the Lord be with you in the body of Christ, the bread of Heaven.

We take the cup.

May the Lord be with you in the blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. (Amen-cross ourselves)

CLOSING

As we go about our lives let us remember living with God is how we treat others and the peace we bring upon them. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Let us walk in the valley of righteousness with God blessing all we meet now and for eternity, always and forever. Amen
